

Course Elective Guide

Liberal Arts (LA)	Humanities (HU)	Social Science (SS)	Fine Arts (FA)
Anthropology Art Biology Chemistry Dance Earth Science Economics English* ESL Film Geography Government History Journalism Math* Media Modern Language Music Philosophy Physics Psychology Religion Sociology Speech Theater Travel Geography	Art Dance English ESL Film Journalism Modern Language Media Music Philosophy Speech Theater	Anthropology Economics Geography Government History Psychology Religion Sociology FILM 122 Film & Society	Art Dance Media Music Philosophy Speech Theater
	Modern Languages (ML)	Science (SC)	Lab Science (LS)
	American Sign Language Arabic Cape Verdean French Portuguese Spanish	3-credit requirement Biology Chemistry Earth Science Physics	4-credit requirement Biology Chemistry Earth Science Physics

Interdisciplinary courses may have one or more attribute.

General Electives can be of any of the subjects listed above and/or any three credits from the following subjects:

Academic Freshman Program	Criminal Justice	Human Services
Accounting	Culinary Arts	Physical Education
Architecture	Diesel	Security
Business	Education	Telecommunications
Child Care Education	Engineering
Computer Technology Information Management	Fire Science

* English and Math developmental courses do not carry any attributes and cannot be used toward electives.