

Fundraising Policy

Recognized student groups may conduct fundraising activities after receiving written approval from the Director of Student Life. Fundraising activities of recognized student groups must relate directly to campus events sponsored by the club or the College. These groups must follow the guidelines established by the Office of Student Life. Contact studentlife@massasoit.edu for further information.