

Interdisciplinary

INTR 110 Introduction to Global Learning

3 credits

Attributes: GL HU LA SS

This course examines processes of globalization and their consequences. Coursework introduces students to global perspectives, global social justice movements, culture, politics, economics, and research methods used across disciplines to analyze globalization. Students make connections between the personal/local and the global, and develop critical thinking, communication, and problem-solving skills necessary to adapt to a rapidly changing world in which cultural, economic, and political boundaries connect and overlap.

Prerequisites: Placement in English 101 English Composition I or higher, or departmental approval.
