RELG 101 Introduction to World Religions

3 credits

Attributes: GL LA SS

This course is an introduction to the principal beliefs and practices of the world's major religious traditions. Emphasis will be on their historical development, sacred literature, and impact on human thought and action. The course does not investigate the existence of a supernatural reality but does develop an objective view of humanity's struggle with this question. Instruction will include guest lectures, readings, media presentations, and discussions.

Pre/Co-requisites: ENGL 101; waiver by placement testing results; or departmental approval.

RELG 400 Special Study in Religion
