

Massasoit's Office of Diversity & Inclusion presents

VANESSA MCNEAL

SPEAKER | FILM PRODUCER | STORYTELLER

Lemons to Lemonade

How do you turn your most difficult moments into experiences that you are most grateful for?

Wednesday, April 18, 2018

Noon – 1 p.m.

Upper Student Lounge
Student Center Building
Brockton Campus

Vanessa shares her journey as a speaker, film producer, and young business owner. Sharing some of her hardest lessons, she teaches how to find meaning and purpose in every experience. This program provides five steps that will help you confront your adversity with grace.

The VOICELESS documentary features the stories of five brave survivors of sexual violence. Vanessa McNeal is a talented producer nationally known for creating ground-breaking films on topics that are often taboo. Her message has resonated with audiences across the country through the influential topics of sexual violence, childhood trauma, film production, overcoming adversity, leadership, business creativity, and career development/attainment.
