

ECED112- Health, Nutrition and Safety Needs of the Young Child: Course Outcomes

1. To understand the interrelationship of health, safety and nutrition in order to promote each child's optimal growth and development
2. To use health assessment tools to identify health conditions in order to provide a thorough model for making social service referrals
3. To design a healthy and safe early education settings to protect children
4. To realize the role of a mandated reporter by effectively understanding, identifying and reporting cases of child abuse and neglect
5. To identify and understand the spread of contagions in order to stop the infectious process through effective control
6. To comprehend how nutrition effects normal growth patterns by examining basic nutrition concepts

7. To plan nutritionally sound meals in an early childhood setting by writing menus