ECED 150 CDA Course Outcomes

Course Outcomes

- To understand the process of the CDA National Credentialing System for early childhood educators
- To understand and create written reflections associated with CDA competency standards
- To create child menus according to developmentally, and culturally appropriate practices
- To involve families in the program, including distribution of family questionnaires
- To develop and incorporate a professional philosophy statement to be included in the Professional Portfolio
- To develop a family resource guide with useful information for families
- To understand the importance of community resources, what they offer, and how to access
- To value and understand the importance of professionalism and ethical practices in early childhood