

ECED 295- Seminar II in Early Childhood Education and Administration: Outcomes

- To provide students with an opportunity for discussion of practicum experiences to reflect on the use of appropriate practices in teaching and directing a program
- To understand the role of an administrator in an early childhood setting to meet EEC requirements
- To discuss the various social and economic trends as they relate to early childhood to understand the diverse needs of the community

- To become knowledgeable about the various professional opportunities in early childhood administration